GUESTS

Marc Badeau and his wife, Margo, joined the club on August 5th as a guest of Rich Cheatham. Marc is a member of the Kiwanis Club of Gorham, ME and his wife is the Faculty Advisor to their local Key Club. The Gorham club was formed in 2007 and initiated a program, Operation Holiday Cheer, which raised funds to ensure children of service people in Maine received gifts at Christmas. The program expanded throughout New England and New York State in 2008. This year the program has been renamed Operation Tribute and been expanded into New Jersey. Operation Tribute is now its own 501(c)(3) and has its own board of directors, but maintains its Kiwanis connection. Our own Rich Cheatham has stepped up as coordinator for the State of Connecticut. Another guest on the 5th was Bill Russell of Norwich who joined Robert Jones. Rich Cheatham submitted the photo of Marc Badeau.

Reggie Swyer of Quaker Hill joined the club for lunch on August 12th. A former member of the long defunct Willimantic Kiwanis Club, Reggie bumped into Marty Olsen as he was leaving the club board meeting at the Waterford Library and inquired about Kiwanis.

AUGUST PROGRAMS

ROBERT JONES: CHAIR

August 19: Rob Simmons, Republican candidate for the US Senate

August 26: Service-Person-of-the-Month in conjunction with the Southeastern Connecticut Chamber of Commerce and the Navy League

PAST PROGRAMS

Our own Robert Jones spoke to the club on August 5th and discussed the relationship of the individual citizen to the United States Constitution. Robert, a real estate lawyer and a member of the Libertarian Party, recently had a book published, Secure the Blessings of Liberty: Understanding the Constitution. Using the extremes of anarchy, the absence of government, and tyranny, the total control by government, Jones analyzed our Constitution and the role government is playing in our lives. Robert's thesis is our government is abusing the Constitution and taking liberties not written therein and that if we the people don't take control we are on a slippery slope towards tyranny. The photo of Robert Jones submitted by Rich Cheatham.

Dan Reale, Libertarian candidate for the second congressional district in Connecticut, addressed the club on August 12th. Dan has an intimate knowledge of the Constitution, especially those areas relating to congressional power(s). He also gave his interpretation of the effectiveness, as well as constitutionality, of fiscal and monetary policy. From left to right in photo: Robert Jones, Dan Reale and President-elect John Russell. Photo submitted by Rich Cheatham.
